

Get FREE Books to Read With Your Preschool Child!

What Is It?

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is a 60 volume set of books beginning with the children's classic The Little Engine That Could™. Each month a new, carefully selected book will be mailed in your child's name directly to your home. Best of all it is FREE! The books are provided through United Way of Summit County – there is no cost or obligation to your family.

Who Is Eligible?

Preschool children ages birth to five who are residents of Summit County.

What Do I Need to Do?

1. Be a legal resident of Summit County, Ohio.
2. Submit your registration information.
3. Notify the United Way of Summit County if your address changes. Books are mailed to the address submitted at registration. If the child's address changes, you must contact us in order to continue receiving books.
4. Read with your child.

When Will I Receive Books?

Does reading aloud with preschool children really matter? Yes!

- Research shows that reading aloud is the single most important thing you can do as a parent to help prepare your child for reading and learning.
- Reading to your child builds literacy skills like vocabulary, phonics and comprehension.
- The number of words a child knows on entering kindergarten is a key predictor of his or her future success.
- Reading to your child also demonstrates that you think reading is important, pleasurable and valued.
